

St Pancras Church

Tenor Vacancy

A vacancy has arisen for a tenor in the Choir of St Pancras Church.

This is a small choir (usually of 4-6 voices) with a large repertoire spanning from c.1550 to 2019, including many pieces which have been written for it.

The choir plays a leading role in the London Festival of Contemporary Church Music, which has been included in BBC Radio 3 broadcasts of Choral Evensong since 2004.

We are looking for an excellent reader with significant experience of consort singing/ 1 to a part performance.

The choir sings Choral Eucharist and Choral Evensong on 42 Sundays per annum as well as a small number of specials. The post is available from September and we hope to audition and appoint in July.
